- At dinner time we go to a restaurant, where we have a delicious buffet accompanied by a performance of traditional dances from various Indian states for a wonderful evening before returning to the port.
- There is limited availability of English-language guides.

COLLECTION: THE CAVE TEMPLES OF ELEPHANTA ISLAND
Description

An adventurous tour to the caves of Elephanta Island, where we can admire the bas-relief statues sculpted in stone that recount Indian myths and legends, the perfect excursion for those who wish to learn more about the Hindu religion.

What we will see

- Elephanta Island
- Elephanta Caves
- Gateway of India

What we will do

- We leave the port by coach and head towards the Gateway of India where we board the ferry that takes us to the cave temples of Elephanta island.
- When we reach the island, we have to walk for about 20 minutes or take a 5 minute train ride to where the caves are located and then climb up 120 steps to the entrance of the caves.
- In the caves we can admire the temples carved out of the rock that date back to the 8th century AD. The bas-relief statues that are sculpted in the stone are brought to life as the guides recount the Indian myths and legends that animate them. The cave carvings are centred around the life of Shiva the destroyer. The most impressive ones, however, are dedicated to the Trimurti of Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva: the creator, the preserver and the destroyer.
- We return to the Gateway of India by ferry and then board the coach which takes us back to the ship.
- The ferry boat crossing to Elephanta Island takes approximately 1 hour.
- The itinerary may be subject to change.
- There is only one train to the Elephanta caves; in the unlikely event that it is not running we have to walk for 20-25 minutes before we can climb the 120 steps to the entrance to the caves. The same applies on the way back. Comfortable shoes with rubber soles are therefore recommended.
- Places on this excursion are limited. We recommend booking early to avoid disappointment.
- You need to be physically fit to take part in this excursion.
- This excursion is not recommended for guests with mobility problems.

DISCOVERY: DISCOVER MUMBAI'S HISTORICAL AND ARTISTIC HERITAGE BY WALKING

Description

In Mumbai every building has its own history which contributes to that of the whole city. We explore these buildings in the narrow streets of Mumbai's Fort district and remain fascinated by the markets and Bazaars along the Colaba Causeway.

What we will see

- General Post Office Building
- Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus
- Municipal Corporation Building
- St. Xavier College
- Western Railway Headquarters Building
- St. Thomas Cathedral
- Flora Fountain
- University of Mumbai
- High Court Building
- David Sassoon Library
- Army and Navy Building
- Jehangir Art Gallery
- Prince of Wales Museum
- Gateway of India
- Shopping at Colaba Causeway or Mangaldas Bazaar and Mahatma Jyotibha Phule Market
- Dhobhi Ghat, Cuffe Parade

What we will do

- We set off by coach to Mumbai's so-called "Fort" district. Although it is difficult today to imagine a fort in Mumbai, the British built one here, the walls of which no longer exist, although various monuments survive that bear witness to the remains of a bygone era. As the Fort district is very large, part of our excursion is conducted on board the coach. We'll see the General Post Office Building, the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Terminus, once known as the Victoria Terminus, the Municipal Corporation Building, St. Xavier College and the Western Railway Headquarters Building.
- When we arrive at St. Thomas Cathedral, we leave the coach to visit the inside of the church.
We leave the cathedral to enjoy an interesting walk through the district, during which we will pass in front of the Flora Fountain, the graceful stone fountain dedicated to the Roman goddess. We then pass by the University of Mumbai and the Supreme Court Building, built in Gothic style. We can then admire the David Sassoon Library, the Army and Navy Building, the Jehangir Art Gallery and the Prince of Wales Museum before ending our tour in style at the famous Gateway of India, the city's symbol.
From here we head to the Mahatma Jyotibha Phule Market, also known as Crawford Market, where locals buy fruit, flowers and animals all under the same roof.
For more shopping before returning to the port we can visit the Mangaldas Bazaar where we can find all sorts of products at very reasonable prices, from electronics to cars and fabrics.
